EVENTS • MEDIA • NEWS

The month of May was a busy one, and we would like to extend our gratitude further to everyone who attended the AGM either live or in person.

As you may recall, at the end of April we announced a partnership with Minespider to launch the Diamond Passport to comply with the new G7 sanctions on Russian diamonds. If you'd like to learn more, this event is further discussed in an April 25, 2024, news release on our website.

George Read appeared on a panel discussion alongside Nathan Williams from Minespider and Robert Wake-Walker from WWW International Diamond Consultants to discuss the diamond market. The discussion began with a primer conversation with Paul Zimnisky, a diamond analyst, on the impact of Russian sanctions.

If you were unable to attend, you can find the replay below in the Media Appearances section.

In the month of May we also announced the appointment of Ron Waddington, a member of Yellow Quill First Nation, as our Indigenous and Community Engagement Officer. You can read that press release here.

We also revamped our corporate presentation and encourage you to take a look here.

Stay connected for our latest updates, media appearances, and news. Transparency is essential to our partnership, and we are thrilled to keep you informed about our progress.
